MAYOR FIORENTINI CONTINUES HIS GOAL TO DIVERSIFY CITY DEPARTMENTS WITH FOUR PROMOTIONS IN THE POLICE DEPARTMENT

Today, Mayor James J. Fiorentini swore in four promoted officers from the Haverhill Police Department. Captain Stephen Doherty was promoted from Acting Captain to permanent Captain. Captain Doherty has been with department since 1998. Lieutenant Meaghan Buckley was promoted from Acting Lieutenant to permanent Lieutenant. Lieutenant Buckley has been with the department since 2004. Lieutenant Doreen Champagne was promoted from Acting Lieutenant to permanent Lieutenant. Lieutenant Champagne has been with the department since 2004. Thomas Howell was promoted from Patrolman to Sargent and has been with the department since 1999.

The Haverhill Police Department had 3 female officers when Mayor Fiorentini was first elected. Today, the department has 11 female officers, which is the largest amount of female officers in the history of the department. Mayor Fiorentini has committed to workplace diversity and the police department is a testament to this goal. The Mayor will continue to push for diversity in all departments in the city.

Mayor James J. Fiorentini stated:

“I am proud to promote all four seasoned officers. All of the promoted officers have been dedicated to the department and serve with distinction with the rest of our committed officers.

“We are fortunate to have 11 dedicated women that serve on our department, 3 of which are superior officers. All of our officers are committed and dedicated men and woman who serve our city.”
