Mayor Hits the Streets with Mobile City Hall Vehicle

Today, Mayor James J. Fiorentini spoke to a class of students at Northern Essex Community College about the Mayor's plans to improve the lives of Haverhill residents, as well developing the tourist aspect to invite newcomers to the city.

The Mayor received many questions regarding the safety of the city, what efforts were being made to reduce crime, and the installment of new and exciting opportunities in Haverhill. In addition, Mayor Fiorentini discussed with students both past future projects to enliven the city, in an effort to make it a destination where can people come to dine, stroll the downtown area and enjoy the history and culture that Haverhill has to offer.

Mayor Fiorentini stated:

“Northern Essex Community College is place filled with many talented students, who work jobs and have other obligations while attending. Today, I saw a group of students who genuinely cared about not just improving their lives, but also the city's downtown area, businesses and homes.”
