Press advisory:

Voter Registration in the City of Haverhill

Please be advised that Mayor James J Fiorentini and the Haverhill City Clerk's office will be holding two voter registration drives this month. Joining in this effort will be the League of Women Voters of Greater Haverhill as well as the Haverhill Board of Registrars.

The first drive will be on Sat, October 4th from 9-11AM at the Presidential Gardens Community Room on Presidential Drive in Bradford. The second will be on Sat, October 11th from 9-11AM at Swasey Field in the Police Mobile Command Vehicle.

Residents will be able to register to vote, make changes to their voter registration, apply for absentee ballots and obtain information about the ballot questions that will be voted on November 4th.

Also, the Haverhill City Clerk's office will be open until 8PM on Wednesday, October 15th for the purpose of registering voters. This is the last day to register to vote or make changes for the November 4th election.

All forms to register to vote or for absentee ballot applications are also available on line: http://ci.haverhill.ma.us/government/city_clerk/index.php.
