

Drinks Trivia 6/13/25

1. Trivia Question: Dry, wet, Gibson, and vodka are all variations of which olive or lemon twist garnished, shaken or stirred, straight up or on the rocks, cocktail? (S/B: Mention James Bond)
Answer: Martini
2. Trivia Question: Also known as a vodka buck, a Moscow mule is traditionally served in a mug made of what metal whose name derives from the Latin word "cuprum"?
Answer: Copper
3. Trivia Question: The wise owl on the label could tell you: Hatachino Nest Japanese Classic Ale is brewed in cedar casks previously used to brew what rice-based alcoholic drink?
Answer: Sake
4. Trivia Question: Havana, Cuba is often referred to as the birthplace of what "M" cocktail whose core ingredients include white rum, lime juice, and mint?
Answer: Mojito
5. Trivia Question: Which cocktail that originates in Puerto Rico has a name that translates as "strained pineapple?" (S/B: Sings "Escape")
Answer: Piña colada
6. Trivia Question: The French 75 cocktail was first created at a Parisian bar called the New York Bar in 1915 during what global conflict that ended on November 11, 1918?
Answer: World War 1
7. Trivia Question: Cocktails like the Tequila Sunrise and Queen Mary call for what specific type of cherry, sweetened and preserved in syrup?
Answer: Maraschino
8. Trivia Question: What cocktail is made of vodka, tequila, rum, triple sec, gin, and a splash of cola? The splash of cola gives it a dark hue to resemble its namesake, and it's a drink you might enjoy in Montauk, New York.
Answer: Long Island Iced Tea
9. Trivia Question: Israel's popular sabra liqueur is chocolate with hints of what citrus fruit?
Answer: Orange
10. Trivia Question: What brand of liqueur that shares its name with a coastal city was originally created to simplify the making of piña coladas by bartenders? At 21% ABV, it's sometimes designated as a flavored rum.
Answer: Malibu
11. Trivia Question: What cocktail with Bacardi, Blue Curacao, pineapple juice, and coconut garnish shares its name with a two-named personification of cold weather, who "The Christmas Song" claims is "nipping at your nose?" (S/B: Sings The Christmas Song)
Answer: Jack Frost
12. Trivia Question: The Austin-based bourbon distiller Nine Banded Whiskey is named for what nine-banded little armored critters that appear on their logos?
Answer: Armadillos
13. Trivia Question: The famous martini becomes a cocktail known as a Gibson when the olive is replaced with what other tearful garnish?
Answer: Cocktail Onion
14. Trivia Question: The Queen's Park Swizzle is a cocktail that originated in Trinidad that's made with lime juice, bitters, sugar, mint, and which alcohol?
Answer: Rum
15. Trivia Question: A Great Wall is a cocktail made with orange vodka, blackcurrant syrup, and a tangerine wedge. The name is inspired by a landmark in which Asian country that cannot, in fact, be seen from space?
Answer: China
16. Trivia Question: Give one to your teacher: Szarlotka is a cocktail widely drunk in Poland which features vodka, as well as the juice of which non-citrus fruit?
Answer: Apple
17. Trivia Question: Heineken owns Cuauhtémoc Moctezuma Brewery, the parent company of what beer repped by "The Most Interesting Man in the World"?
Answer: Dos Equis
18. Trivia Question: If you grow it, they will drink: Rye and barley get a lot of attention in the distilling game, but a mash of what field-dwelling vegetable must legally be present if you're making bourbon?
Answer: Corn

19. Trivia Question: Three monosyllabic creatures collectively and repeatedly uttered the name "Budweiser" in a famous 1995 Super Bowl commercial. What type of animals were these pseudo-mascots? (S/B: Repeat the commercial)
Answer: Frogs
20. Trivia Question: The Kentucky Derby's traditional mint julep recipe calls for mint, sugar, water, and what type (not brand) of whiskey famously distilled in the Bluegrass State, not France?
Answer: Bourbon
- BONUS: The Kentucky Derby's traditional mint julep recipe calls for mint, sugar, water, and what type (not brand) of whiskey famously distilled in the Bluegrass State, not France?
Answer: Hair of the Dog